Text for questions number 10 and 11

Dear James,

Thank you for your former letter. I'm glad that you're taking part in the conference about Russia! It's so wonderful!

The history of my native country is great! Russia is famous for its achievements and outstanding personalities. As for the most important events in the history of Russia, it's The Great Patriotic War. Russian people fought for their motherland and happiness of future generations. I think that Russian commander G. Zhukov who took part in the war of 1941- 1945 is really a great figure in our history. Besides, my town is related to the great past of Russia. It was the place of terrible battles during the war.

Keep in touch!

Best wishes,
Igor

It was a dark and stormy night. The whole of Greentown was covered by dark clouds. Christopher was returning home. It started raining cats and dogs.

Suddenly he saw a U.F.O. appearing from the clouds above. In no time it landed on the road. Three aliens came out. Chris was astonished as he could understand their language. Their plan was to take all the trees away from earth. Not wasting a moment, Chris called his friends. Those aliens pointed out to a tree. An eerie blue light shot out from their hands making a tree vanish. Soon, Chris's friends arrived. They tried to scare those aliens by throwing stones, but in vain.

Luckily, Mr. Goon, the fat inspector of the area arrived. With a frightened look on his face, he shot at those aliens. One of them pointed his finger at Mr. Goon. To everyone's amazement, Mr. Goon became as thin as a stick. Everybody laughed. Suddenly, Anna, Chris's friend, ran towards them, shouting at the top of her shrill voice. Those aliens got the fright of their lives and vanished along with their spaceship. The kids were delighted. They had saved their planet. Mr. Goon was left fiddling with his pants.

Last year my family and I went to the most amazing holiday to Spain. We had never been to Spain before and my Dad wanted to go there because he said that he was fed up with sitting around in the damp and gloom!

When we arrived at the villa it was baking hot. The first thing that Dad did was to take a shower. He said that he needed to cool off after such a long journey. There was a swimming pool so we spent a lot of time mucking about in the water and splashing water over Dad!

One afternoon we went to visit some caves in the hills. Inside the caves were the most amazing stalagmites and stalactites. They were knobbly and looked like massive, misshapen spears. Some were like bars in a zoo. In the caves it was quite cold.

On the third day we visited a beach. The waves were just right for surfing so we hired some body boards. Dad was worried that we would drown so he spent the afternoon standing in the sea watching us. It was a breeze!

One of the best things about the holiday was that Dad was so useless at cooking that we had to go into the town every night to eat. There was a stall where you could buy chips and calamary. When we got home Mum wanted to see all the photos. I had a magnificent picture of Dad's very red face from too much sun. All in all I think that it was a great holiday and I can't wait to go back .

How to Connect Laptop to TV - Step by Step

1. Most computers have an S-Video port that can be connected to the S-Video input of your TV screen using a very cheap S-Video cable (this cable is round with 4 or 7 pins). If you have an older monitor, you can use the 15-pin VGA cable to connect the computer to the TV and it will offer better picture quality than the S-Video cable.
 2. You need a 3.5mm Mini Plug to RCA Cable Stereo to connect the audio line out from a notebook to your TV. The red cable connector goes into the red socket of your TV, black connector into the black socket while the black connector goes into the 3.5mm headphone jack of your computer.
 3. Open the "display settings" on your Windows computer and activate the output to the TV screen. You can either mirror content of your computer on the TV or extend the display just like a dual monitor screen. If you are using Windows 7, press the keyboard shortcut Windows + P to quickly access the display settings or search for "Connect to External Display" in the Windows Run box.
 4. Pick up your TV remote and swift to "External Inputs" from the menu. You will need to change the default "Video 1" to a different selection which may be "HDMI 1" or "Video 2" depending on how you have made the connection.
27. "Pick up your TV remote and swift to "External Inputs" from the menu.." (Number 4).

The following text is for No 30-33.

Gardenia plants are popular for the strong sweet scent of their flowers. Gardenia is the national flower in Pakistan. In Japan and China, the flower is called Kuchinashi (Japanese) and Zhi zi (Chinese).

Gardenia plants are evergreen shrubs. Their small trees can grow to 1 - 5 meters tall. The leaves are 5 - 50 centimeters long and 3 - 25 centimeters broad, dark green and glossy with a leathery texture. The flowers are in small groups, white, or pale yellow, with 5-12 lobes (petals) from 5-12 centimeters diameter. They usually bloom in mid- spring to mid-summer. Many species have strong aroma.

To cultivate gardenia as a house plant is not easy. This species can be difficult to grow because it originated in warm humid tropical areas. It demands high humidity and bright (not direct) light to thrive. It flourishes in acidic soil with good drainage and thrives on 20° - 23° C during the day and 15° - 16° C in the evening. Potting soils developed specifically for gardenias are available. It grows no larger than 18 inches in height and width when grown indoor. In climates where it can be grown outdoors, it can reach the height of 6 feet. If water hits the flowers, they will turn brown.

30. How tall is a gardenia tree?

I have a favorite place to visit. It is Imogiri Royal Cemetery. It is the official cemetery of the royal descendents from Yogyakarta and Surakarta. This cemetery is located on a beautiful hill about 12 km from Yogyakarta. The royal graveyard is reachable by 345 stone steps leading to it. Imogiri is about 17 km Southeast of Yogyakarta and easily accessible by the bus or car.

The tombs are built within three main courtyards. This Graveyard is the tomb of Sultan Agung Hanyokrokusumo, the third king of the Islamic Mataram Kingdom. All the kings of the Mataram Kingdom, from Sultan Hamengku Buwono I until Hamengku Buwono IX and their families as the Surakarta Kingdoms as well were all buried at the Imogiri Royal Cemetery.

This cemetery was built in 1645. Everyday many people visit Imogiri and step up on 345 stairs to reach the top of the hill where the tomb of the kings rested. Entry into the smaller courtyards housing the tombs of the princes is allowed, but the tomb can only be visited only on Monday 09.00 - 12.00 and Friday 13.00 - 16.00. The visitors must wear the traditional Javanese dress, which however can be hired on the spot at a modest fee. The cemetery is closed during the Moslem month of Ramadhan.

Once upon a time there was a kingdom named Medhang Kamulan. The kingdom was led by King Dewata Cengkar, a king who liked to eat human meat. Day by day, the Kingdom became less crowded because the people were eaten by the king one by one, and many people ran away from the kingdom to save themselves. There were no more people to be served to the villainous king.

At that time, Aji Saka arrived in Medhang Kamulan. He thought, "Why is this country so deserted and scary?" Then, he tried to find out what had happened. After he knew what had happened, he made a strategy to beat King Dewata Cengkar. Aji Saka came to meet King Dewata Cengkar and said that he would give his body to be eaten if Dewata Cengkar can answer his riddles. If he couldn't, then he had to give Aji Saka land as wide as his turban.

Aji Saka and Dewata Cengkar sat face to face. Aji Saka then gave him two riddles. Dewata Cengkar couldn't answer any of them. As their agreement, King Dewata Cengkar had to give a piece of land for Aji Saka as wide as Aji Saka's turban. Aji Saka held one side of his turban and he asked the king to hold the other side. Miraculously, when they were spreading the turban, it was spreading endlessly. The king was very surprised; he had to step back many miles backward until he arrived at the shore of Laut Kidul. Aji Saka waved his turban and it made King Dewata Cengkar fall to the big wave of Laut Kidul. The God cursed him to be a white crocodile, because he often ate human meat.

The people were very happy to know that the king had gone. They elected Aji Saka as the new king of Medhang Kamulan.

37. Why did the Medang Kamulan people run away to the other kingdom?
